

RURŌ KYŌEI KAI

Welcome Dojo Leaders and Martial Arts Practitioners,

Rurō Kyōei Kai (RKK) is a martial arts community and charity collective rooted in traditional Judo principles. Based on the "wandering dojo" concept, RKK bridges independent dojos, practitioners, and local communities. We invite your dojo to join our network for open exchange, technical development, and charitable outreach.

1. Our Mission

We cultivate cross-dojō unity, technical excellence, and community empowerment through shared martial arts practice. By connecting practitioners across geographical and organizational boundaries, RKK ensures martial arts remains a force for personal growth and collective good.

2. Core Values & Guiding Pillars

Pillar	Japanese Concept	Practical Meaning & Application
Mutual Prosperity	Jita Kyōei (自他共栄)	We believe that progress is shared. When one practitioner or dojo succeeds, the entire martial arts community rises together.
The Wandering Spirit	Rurō (流浪)	Embracing open mat culture. Practitioners travel, cross-train, and share techniques with open minds and mutual respect across dojo borders.

Pillar	Japanese Concept	Practical Meaning & Application
Maximum Efficiency	Seiryoku Zen'yō (精力善用)	Directing our physical energy, time, and collective resources toward maximum positive impact inside and outside the dojo.
